BACKGROUND

The National Gender and Equality Commission (NGEC) is a Constitutional Commission established pursuant to Articles 59 (4) and (5) of the Constitution and operationalized through the National Gender and Equality Commission Act 2011 (NGEC Act), with an overall mandate of promoting gender equality and freedom from discrimination as per Article 27 of the Constitution. The NGEC's target groups include women, youth, persons with disabilities (PWDs), and children, the older members of society and minorities and marginalized groups and commonly, also referred to as "Special Interest Groups" (SIGs). The functions of the commission are partly set out in Article 59(2) and fully in Section 8 (a) to (n) of the NGEC Act.

In respect to Phase 2 of the 2017 General Elections, the Commission key focus areas are:

- Campaign
- Simulation
- Polling and

The commission will also monitor incidences of gender based violence as a driver of inequality and discrimination.
